

ICAS at home Preparation Checklist for Parents and Students

This preparation checklist will guide you through preparing for your child to sit ICAS at home under the school’s remote supervision. Please read and follow the steps carefully.

Your teacher will set the date and time for your child to sit the ICAS test.

Need support? Your teacher is your first port-of-call for any technical issues.

PREPARATION FOR TEST CHECKLIST (TIME FRAMES AT DISCRETION OF TEACHER)	EXTRA RESOURCES
 UP TO 14 DAYS BEFORE TEST DAY
Your child’s teacher will contact you about your child using ICAS from home.
If your child’s device is compatible, download Google Chrome internet browser. This is the most compatible internet browser to use with ICAS Mathematics, English, Science and Digital Technologies.	Read the Technical requirements for devices and browsers compatible with ICAS
If your child is sitting ICAS Writing or Spelling Bee, install Janison Replay onto your child’s device (and onto a spare device, if possible).	Read about and install Janison Replay
Your child’s teacher will send you your child’s one-time code(s) . Write these down and keep handy. These are used to access the test.

 ON TEST DAY
Your child's teacher will send you your child's session code. This must be used along with the subject-specific one-time code to enter the ICAS test. Write these codes down. Session code is entered first.
Your child's teacher will run the test with your child. Please ensure your child follows the exam conditions.	Visit this page, click "Parents" and scroll down to read exam conditions

Once your child has successfully submitted their test, there is nothing further to do. Close the browser or app and listen to further instructions from the teacher.

Your child's ICAS results

Your school will be notified by ICAS Assessments when the results are ready to view. Your school will process the results on their end and will let you know when you can access the online results. They will also pass on your child's ICAS certificate to you.
